Rewrite the following passage with correct punctuation. Some has been put in for you to help.

it was a lovely sunny day. sam and jane wanted to go and visit the beach in folkestone Although they had lived there a long time they had never spent the day there They packed up their hats towels sun cream and spades and set off on the bus. sam was so excited as he was looking forward to making the biggest sandcastle ever when they got there the golden soft and silky sand stretched before them for miles What an amazing sight it was

Jane rushed to help sam with his sandcastle project because they knew they only had a little while before they would have to go home again. Would they be able to get the sandcastle finished in time As they worked together sam and jane had a fabulous time

Eventually the giant sandcastle was finished. It towered above all the others on the beach like a huge mountain sam was so pleased with his amazing creation

Thanks Jane he said. Unfortunately it was then time for them to head home. Sams sandcastle could be seen for miles around and he really hoped that the sea wouldnt wash it away too soon.

Challenge,

Write a paragraph of your own about something that interests you. It could be what you did during the holidays or it might be about your favourite author for example. Make sure you use correct punctuation throughout.

It was a lovely sunny day. Sam and Jane wanted to go and visit the beach in Folkestone. Although they had lived there a long time, they had never spent the day there. They packed up their hats, towels, sun cream and spades and set off on the bus. Sam was so excited as he was looking forward to making the biggest sandcastle ever. When they got there, the golden, soft and silky sand stretched before them for miles. What an amazing sight it was!

Jane rushed to help Sam with his sandcastle project because they knew they only had a little while before they would have to go home again. Would they be able to get the sandcastle finished in time? As they worked together, Sam and Jane had a fabulous time.

Eventually, the giant sandcastle was finished. It towered above all the others on the beach like a huge mountain. Sam was so pleased with his amazing creation.

"Thanks Jane," he said. Unfortunately it was then time for them to head home. Sam's sandcastle could be seen for miles around and he really hoped that the sea wouldn't wash it away too soon.
