

The History of Computing

1. Using the information from the PowerPoint, you need to fill in the key event or date.
2. If you print the page, you will need to cut out the events and then put them in chronological order before you stick them in your book.
3. If you are not printing the page, you can write the information in chronological order in your book.

1837

twinkl.com

The first Raspberry Pi was sold.

twinkl.com

1978

twinkl.com

Bill Gates became the world's youngest billionaire.

twinkl.com

1613

twinkl.com

Apple produced the first iPad.

twinkl.com

1939-1945

twinkl.com

Ada Lovelace became the world's first computer programmer.

twinkl.com

1989

twinkl.com