What the Ladybird Heard by Julia Donaldson

LO: To retrieve information from a story.

This week all of our learning is going to be based on the story 'What the Ladybird Heard' by Julia Donaldson.

Today we would like you to read the story. If you happen to have a copy of the book at home that is fantastic—read it through with your grown ups. If you don't have the book don't worry! There are plenty of versions of it being read on YouTube, even one by Julia Donaldson herself!

Once you have read through the book, we would like you to think about who are the characters in the story and what are the key events.

You could draw and label your favourite character in your learning book.

The story is written in a particular way, listen and look carefully at the words at the end of the sentences, what do you notice? Can you make a list of rhyming words in your learning book?
