What the Ladybird Heard by Julia Donaldson

LO: To be able to sequence a story correctly.

Today, we would like you to use your VIPERS skill of 'sequence'!

Can you remember what that means?

That's right, it's putting events in the correct order!

There are some examples of questions your grown ups can ask you about the story on this page, talk through them and see if you can verbally sequence the story first.

Once you've talked through the story, we would like you to sequence the story in your learning books. You can choose how you do this, you might choose to draw each key event of the story and label it. Or you might have your own idea!
